CAREER SUMMARY

A dedicated Computer Science & Engineering graduate with practical experience in technical support and system optimization. Through my internship at Dream 71, I contributed to maintaining high-level data accuracy for government projects and assisted in enhancing website responsiveness. Currently, I am leveraging my technical background at TQIU to manage backend operations and data-driven Excel reporting. I am passionate about utilizing my CSE knowledge to streamline business processes and am eager to grow within a future-ready IT team where I can solve real-world operational challenges.
